EAST CENTRAL STATE NORMAL A SCHOOL FOR TEACHERS

MORE STUDENTS DID ACTUAL NORMAL WORK HERE LAST REGULAR SESSION THAN ANY OTHER NEW NORMAL IN THE STATE—SUMMER TERM ATTENDED BY MORE TEACHERS THAN WAS EXPECTED AT THIS EARLY DATE.

There are up to this time approximately two hundred and fifty students enrolled for the summer session of the E. C. N. and more are coming in every day. Johnston county alone has furnished about seventy of this number and ten new students from there will be here today.

To make a long story, short there is a sufficient number of students now in each department to give every instructor in the normal a big class and before the enrollment is complete each professor will have all he can possibly give justice.

There are two things noticeable at the normal which augurs the highest excellence and ultimately the greatest success of any normal in the state—from an educational viewpoint. First every body is systematically busy—there is nothing rushing no disorder; and, secondly, by far the greater number of the students are doing credit work.

That means they are going to school to attain scholarship, mental and spiritual development and that that they will return to the E. C. N. from year to year and push on to graduation. There is a vast difference between this school and some normals that do practically nothing more than high school work, followed by a short term cramming for a certificate.

During the last regular session recently closed more students did actual normal work here than in any other new normal in the state, numbering about three and one fourth hundreds. This does not include the fifty who enrolled for the spring review course. This article is not written as a treatise on normal schools—on the other hand we wanted to say that the E. C. N. is a real normal where teachers are really educated and that things are looking business like at the building.

Besides the regular faculty of 21 teachers, there are three additions to the number who are members of the summer normal faculty, viz: T. B. Limer of Allen who has the commercial branches; H. A. Bower, of Ravia, with the departments of Oklahoma history and agriculture; and E. L. Newman of Hickory who has civics and grammar.

President Briles has just returned from a chase after the capitol of Oklahoma, after running up to Guthrie and back to Oklahoma City he finally determined the location at the Lee-Huskins hotel. He says there are two car loads of furniture on track for the new building. A great part of this load of furniture is composed of the opera chairs which seat the auditorium. The furniture is being transferred to the new building.

SENATOR GORE SAYS CAPITAL REMOVAL LEGAL

Washington, D. C., June 14.—Senator Gore Monday entered vigorous denial to the statement that in any way had he participated in the capitol location fight. Said the Lawton Senator: "I have never made a statement to anyone respecting the propriety of removing the state capitol from Guthrie to any other place. I have never regarded the act of congress locating the state capital as constitutional or binding. If congress could fix the location for five years it could fix it for five hundred years and in the same manner would regulate the policy and politics of any state."

Senator Gore was credited with having sent the following telegram to a Guthrie newspaper: "The proposed capital removal is an iniquitous measure and violates the spirit and letter of the constitution which says the capitol shall remain at Guthrie until 1913. I am unalterably opposed to the bill, which I have carefully read and I advise all my friends to vote against it."

TAHLEQUAH NORMAL INN BURNS

Building Partly Saved—Several Occupants Have Narrow Escape.

Tahlequah, Okla., June 14.—The Normal Inn, one of the leading hotels of this place and filled with students here attending the summer normal, burned this morning shortly after midnight. A dozen or more girls sleeping in the upper rooms, escaped in their night gowns, saving nothing from their wardrobes. Mrs. Pitchford, wife of Judge John H. Pitchford, a cripple, was carried out of the burning building, and Dr. Walter Reed and a student of the normal jumped from an upper story window.

The fire caught on the lower floor of the building, a part of which was used as a fruit and grocery store and shortly thereafter a can of gasoline in the building exploded throwing the fire everywhere. The smoke boiled into the upper rooms and some of the sleeping occupants were so confused when awakened that they could not find the stairway and jumped from the windows.

The building is of concrete construction and was partially saved. It is covered by insurance, as were the on the lower floor. The girls in the building were taken in charge by their friends and given homes and clothing, the normal faculty taking care of a large number of them who were strangers here and had just come in to attend the normal which opened the summer term yesterday.

ACCORDING TO LAW.

People Have Spoken, According to Law Capital at Oklahoma City.

Oklahoma City, Okla., June 14.—The sudden removal by Governor Haskell of the state capital from Guthrie to Oklahoma City ought not have been a surprise to any one at all familiar with the law of the state. There is and can be no question as to what the law is. Attorneys all agree as to what our laws provide in the matter. The surprise comes only to those who were eagerly fighting for or against the bill lost sight of the plain provisions and immediate effect of the law itself.

Under the provisions of our laws when a measure properly initiated by the people is carried by the people, it becomes effective at once. This is indisputable. Hence when a substantial majority of the people voted to locate the capital of Oklahoma the city selected becomes forthwith the capital of the state. The governor had no discretion in the matter. He could violate the law, he could ignore it, or he could obey it. There should be no surprise, whatever, that the governor chooses to obey the law.

There can be only one capital. The people have made Oklahoma City that capital. If the election was legal, then Oklahoma City is that one state capital. If the election was not legal then the question of its illegality must be determined by the courts. The governor is an executive to enforce the law, not a judicial officer to interpret the law nor a legislative officer to create a law. Acting as an executive upon the advice of the ablest legal counsel, Governor Haskell is simply recognizing a law the people themselves have made.

PRISONERS ESCAPE ACUSE OFFICER OF BRIBERY

Hugo, Okla., June 14.—Five prisoners escaped from the county chain gang at Fort Townsend today and one of them, a negro named Alexander Green, serving a $200 fine and three month's jail sentence, walked to Hugo and surrendered to the sheriff. He also has a felony charge against him.

Green related a sensational story. He told Sheriff Connell and Jailor Deweese that an officer had asked the five men to run off from guard in order that the guard might lose his job for neglect of duty. The prisoner also said that the officer had promised the men half a gallon of whiskey as a bribe to make their escape. The matter is being investigated by the sheriff and county attorney.

Four of the fugitives have not been recaptured.

TWO GUARDS AT GUTHRIE

ONE PREVENTS INTERFERENCE WITH HASKELL'S ORDERS, THE OTHER RETAINS RECORDS.

SEARCHES OFFICIAL'S GRIP

Haskell Demands Apology—Martial Law May Be Declared—Chief Executive Office at Oklahoma City.

Guthrie, Ok., June 14.—In Guthrie the state house is under a double guard. One is maintained by the state to prevent interference with carrying out any orders which may be issued from Oklahoma City, and another, a sort of espionage, is kept by order of the court to prevent removal of any of the records from Guthrie or doing anything that smacks of capital removal.

Considerable Indignation Aroused.

An incident today caused considerable indignation among state house employees and some disturbance at the executive office in Oklahoma City. State Labor Commissioner Daugherty left the state house today carrying a grip, en route to another town for the purpose of attending, it is stated, to litigation in connection with his department. When a short distance from the state house the commissioner was halted by a police officer, who told him of the order of the court and searched the grip. Daugherty protested that he was traveling to transact business of the department which could not be attended to in Guthrie.

Court's Vigilance not Relaxed.

As further indication that the court's vigilance has not been relaxed, formal notice was served upon State Auditor Trapp today, cautioning him against transferring any portion of his office or official records to Oklahoma City. Warrants in payment of claims against the state are drawn through the auditor's office, but it is the understanding tonight that nothing of a final nature is being done.

Haskell Demands Apologies.

When information of the Daugherty incident reached Gov. Haskell in Oklahoma City, he sent long dispatches to Attorney General West, demanding apologies be made both by Mayor Farquarson and Sheriff Mahoney. The sheriff could not be located tonight.

Mayor Farquarson stated that he had received the governor's demand from the attorney general, and that if the policeman exceeded his authority as a city employee, and offered either indignities or violence to Mr. Daugherty, he would apologize to the labor commissioner as mayor of the city.

Statement by Mayor of Guthrie.

"That is as far as I will go," declared the mayor over the telephone tonight, "and as for Gov. Haskell, I do not consider him in this case in any respect. If the police officer was acting as indicated, it was as a deputy under Sheriff Mahoney, and not for the city of Guthrie."

Gov. Haskell stated in Oklahoma City Monday that if the issue was forced he would declare the city of Guthrie under martial law.

Two Capitals at Present.

Oklahoma has a dual capital, and while men and newspaper discuss the situation more acrimoniously, courts and lawyers wrangle over injunctions.

Interest in the situation is intense.

Adj. Gen. Frank Canton of the First Regiment of Oklahoma National Guard conferred with Gov. Haskell today after it was reported from Guthrie that State Labor Commissioner Daugherty had been halted by a Guthrie policeman and his grip searched.

When the Adjutant General came out of the governor's office he said:

"If there's anything we need in Guthrie, it takes but a little order from the governor and we can go and get it."

Gov. Haskell has repeatedly announced that he meant to resort to no manner of force or stealth in the removal of the capital but the searching of a state officer's grip in Guthrie today caused the governor to demand of Mayor Farquarson of Guthrie an apology.

State officers are going back and forth between Guthrie and Oklahoma City. A majority of them apparently consider Oklahoma City the capital.

State Superintendent Cameron of the Department of Education said today that while his office in Guthrie is open, the business there transacted is a though it were transacted in Oklahoma City.

The Guthrie Daily Leader, edited and published by Leslie G. Niblack, son-in-law of Gov. Haskell, prints partial and complete returns indicating that the bill has carried only by 5,368, with several counties yet to hear from. The same issue reproduces an editorial from the Muskogee Times-Democrat severely criticizing state officials for what the paper terms as "their indirect expressed contempt for the court's mandate."

LIQUOR QUESTION UP TO VOTERS

SUPREME COURT DECISIONS OPEN WAY FOR HIGH LICENSE ADVOCATES.

Proposed Suffrage Amendment Up to Governor—Election Necessary.

Guthrie, Okla., June 14.—That the initiative and referendum will be used on three different big questions in Oklahoma within the next few months, and possibly on four, is now certain. The supreme court has denied the motion of the Anti-Saloon league for a rehearing in the case at tacking the legality of the 57,000 name petition initiating an amendment to the state constitution abolishing prohibition and setting up a system of local option and high license, and the petitions are now up to the governor for him to call an election.

A decision was also handed down in the women's suffrage case, and the bill proposing to eliminate the word "male" from the electorate provisions of the state constitution are now up to the governor for him to call an election also.

The governor yesterday issued his proclamation calling an election on the "grandfather clause" amendment to the constitution under which it is hoped to disfranchise the ignorant negro vote of the state.

The supreme court a week ago affirmed the validity of the "New Jerusalem" capital location bill, and that must either be voted on or put out of the way somehow.

Governor Haskell must set a special date for voting on the women suffrage and anti-prohibition questions or else these automatically come to vote November 2.

"Let the people know" that an Oklahoma territorial administration paid $100 for typewriters. A democratic state administration is now paying $72.90 for the same machine. Thus
a democratic administration saves on every typewriter bought $27.10.

"Let the people know" that Oklahoma territory paid $8.00 per ton for coal. Oklahoma state now buys the same grade of coal for $4.14. Thus a democratic administration saves on
every ton of coal purchased $3.86—
almost fifty per cent.

The printing of election supplies
used in the first territorial election cost $12,500. The printing of election supplies used in the first state election
cost the people only $3,638.

KENTUCKY GREET'S MURRAY.
Blue Grass State Committee Contributes $130 to Campaign Fund
and Refers to Kentucky
Style.

Tishomingo, Okla., June 15.—Hon.
H. L. Muldrow, secretary to Murray's
campaign committee, stated to your
reporter that he was very much gratified at the reports from all portions
of the state touching the progress
of Bill Murray's campaign for governor. He said one of the most gratifying things to him was that Col.
J. Sol Miller and a group of friends
living in the country precincts of a short distance from Louisville, Ky.,
sent a contribution to Murray's campaign fund of $130, which they stated
was for the purpose of showing
how Kentucky regarded Murray.
"The Reformer of the Southwest."

Col. Miller said: "I desire to say that the sentiments expressed by the Hon. Lee Cruce at Oklahoma City
will find no place with the right kind
of Kentuckians when he said if there
was anything said against his character or his family he would hold the
party responsible in the old Kentucky
style. Kentucky has no style other than that of the people of the other
states. The fact is a true Kentuckian
never climbs a hill until he gets to
it. You may rest assured that he never goes around with a chip on his shoulder for somebody else to knock
off to get a fight. Kentuckians are like other people, if insulted they
will resent it, at home or elsewhere,
and I am satisfied that every Ken-
tuckian in Oklahoma views this matter just as I do."

Mr. Muldrow said that these were
not the only complimentary letters
touching Murray and his candidacy
that have been received from other states.

List of Farm Loans Made During Week Ending June 4th, 1910.

Keen, James E., Cheyenne, Roger
Mills county, $1,000.
Cobb, Rufus R., Arapahoe, Custer
county, $2,500.
Stonecker, Chas. J., Okeene, Blaine
county, $2,500.
Mitchell, Lewis B., Saratoga, Woods
county, $600.
Harris, Edwin W., Guthrie, Payne
county, $1,500.
Armstrong, L. E., Waynoka, Woods
county, $2,000.
Rinard, John D., Ada, Pontotoc
county, $700.
Stevens, Mathew H., Higley, Wood-
ward county $600.
Total, $11,400.

We see from the above figures
that a democratic administration is
done for the common people of the state. This money could have been loaned to bankers at a low rate of interest, and the bankers could have
then loaned the money to farmers at
the maximum rate of interest. But
the state loans the money direct to
the farmer, and instead of enriching
capitalists it assists the farmers in improving their farms and their homes. Since the organization of this department $1,500,000 has been loaned
on Oklahoma farms. Who can estimate the good results that have accrued from such a policy? And who can doubt that a republican administration would have favored the
bankers with these funds and left
the farmers without participation in
this bounty of the state.

the Farmers Loan and Trust company, against A. N. Loyd and D. C.

fendants appealed to the county court.

CROP CONDITIONS ARE ENCOURAGING

Production of Wheat and Oats Largest in Several Years--Harvest is Nearly Over--Bumper
in Corn Promised.

As its first general report on the crops of Texas and Oklahoma for the current season. The News presents the individual reports of 700 correspondents, written on June 8, which reports, as a rule, show very encouraging conditions and prospects in respect to the various crops now growing or in process of harvesting.

The cotton acreage for Texas is shown to be 102.6 of the acreage planted in 1909, and for Oklahoma 114.2 per cent. Acreage abandoned because of poor stands, and land laid out for cotton, but seeded to other crops, has been deducted.

Condition of cotton is compared with the condition at the corresponding period in 1909, and is not compared with "normal" or "ten-year average," the standard used by the United States Department of Agriculture. The condition of cotton in Texas is shown to be 8.8 per cent better than on June 8, 1909; in Oklahoma 7.7 per cent better.

The averages by districts, comparisons being given with 1909 (100 representing acreage and condition in that year), follow:

District—	Acreage	Condition	Ginned 1909
East Texas	108.3	101.3	332,876
North Texas	101.5	104.6	504,467
Central Texas	98.9	103.0	774,247
South Texas	99.4	109.2	249,934
Northwest Texas	104.5	110.7	185,584
Middle West Texas	104.7	121.6	160,667
Southwest Texas	109.6	114.7	171,541
Panhandle and West	110.3	114.1	34,495
All Texas	102.6	108.8	2,522,811
Oklahoma	114.2	107.7	670,257

OKLAHOMA.

Reports on the grain crops of Oklahoma indicate an increased acreage of wheat, corn and oats, with conditions averaging above those of 1909. Corn will average an increased acreage of 10 per cent, with conditions improved 15 per cent; wheat an increased acreage of 10 per cent;
with conditions 12 per cent better; oats an increase of 20 per cent in acreage, with conditions 12 per cent better. Many of the same conditions prevailing in Texas prevailed in Oklahoma early in the season.

WRIGHTS HAVE LOST INJUNCTION SUIT

Federal Court of Appeals Vacates
Temporary Restraining Order.

New York, June 14.—The United States Circuit Court of Appeals, in
an unanimous decision handed down
today vacated the temporary injunction obtained by the Wright company, restraining the Herring-Curtiss
company and Louis Paulhan, the French aviator, from using aero-
planes, which the Wright brothers
contended were infringements on
their patents.

The preliminary injunction was granted by Judge Hazol, sitting at Buffalo, and the restraining order
against Paulhan was issued by Judge
Hand in this district. Both injunctions are vacated pending the trial
of the suits.

Court's Decision.

The decision said in part:
"There is no dispute as to the proposition that the question whether or not there has been infringement of this patent, however broadly it may be construed, depends upon
the question whether or not in defendant's machine a tendency to spin
or swerve is checked or counteracted by the operation of the vertical rudder. That of course, on its theoretical and on its practical side, is a
question of fact."

"In this record upon the question
of fact there is a sharp conflict of
evidence, numerous affidavits testify-
ing. All their statements are ex parte

affidavits made without any opportunity to test their probative force
by cross-examination. Under such circumstances it seems to us, irrespective of any of the other questions
in the case that infringement was
not so clearly established as to justify a preliminary injunction."

WILL SPELL 'EM DOWN

Miss Myrtle Donaghey, a student of the Allen public school, was here yesterday en route to Oklahoma City where she will enter the state spelling contest, representing Pontotoc county. To be sure it is quite an honor to represent this county in a state spelling contest, but Miss Donaghey merits it, and of course, everybody in Pontotoc is interested in the state spelling bee and believes Miss Donaghey can turn 'em down.

Tonight, in the Chamber of Commerce rooms at Oklahoma City, the best speller among the school children of Oklahoma will be selected. Many children from the various counties in the state are listed in the contest, each having been picked for this honor of representing Oklahoma in a national contest to be held in Boston in August, under the auspices of the National Educational association.

About a month ago it was decided that Oklahoma should have a representative, and since that time the various county superintendents have been holding local contests to find their best spellers. For the meeting of these county winners Wednesday night there is a list of 2,000 words, the hardest that could be found. The winner in the contest will go to Boston.

A PATRIOTIC SERVICE.

At Christian Church Monday Evening Next.

At the regular monthly meeting of the Brotherhood of Disciples of Christ at Christian church next Monday evening, a patriotic program will be rendered.

These programs, which are always thoroughly fraught with living issues presented from the christian man's standpoint are very helpful and interesting. Such programs as are rendered will mean much to the ethics of a city. Membership in the organization is not confined to church members, but any chivalrous and virtuous loving gentleman.

The program follows, and is open to the entire public.

New County Board of Examiners.
The new county board of examiners is composed of County Supt. T. F. Pierce, chairman; T. B. Liner, Allen; and W. T. Melton, Center.

The new members of the board, Messrs. Liner and Melton need no introduction to the teachers and citizens of this county. Prof. Liner is the superintendent of the Allen public schools and the fact that the people of Allen re-elected him from year to year with an advance in salary is enough said. Prof. Melton holds the same record at Center. That Pontotoc county examining board will have as its members men who are in every respect qualified for the place will not be questioned.

SAM HARRIS HOTEL IN VERY BAD WAY

UNFORTUNATE WOMEN AND POKER PLAYERS ARRESTED IN HARRIS HOTEL.

Monday night, Charlie Brady, city officer, noticed a little more than the usual enterprise around the Harris hotel and quietly looking further became convinced that several different character of crimes were being committed in the alleged reformed Harris hotel.

It appeared to Brady that the apparent evil and illegal actions evidently in progress throughout the hotel were organized with too much cunning and under too much protection to capture any one unless he was assisted. He called in Chief of Police George Culver and together they made a raid. Considering the protection afforded the unfortunate women, and the men engaged in the poker game, it was no less than a "coup de etat" that resulted in Officers Culver and Brady arresting several men engaged in playing poker and some poor women who were registered at the hotel, but who appeared to be reserved to no particular rooms.

The five arrested made bond and the next morning plead guilty to the crimes with which they were charged.

When there is considered the obstacles confronting, the city officers are to be congratulated that they were successful in the Harris Hotel raid.

ABANDONS OFFICIAL WELCOME IDEA

Congress Will Not Send Committee to Welcome Roosevelt Saturday.

Washington, June 14.—Because the senate objected to sending a committee of its members to meet Col. Roosevelt he will land in New York on Saturday without an official welcome from Congress. As the band of those who have received letters from the former president continued to grow the few members of the house left out started a movement for a joint committee of congress to give him an official welcome. It was assumed this might take in those who were left who wanted to go.

Mr. Roosevelt was never on especially cordial terms with the senate. When the house movement was well under way some one suggested that the senate be consulted, this was done. "What for?" asked the pro-tem members of the upper house. The scouts of the house went back to their end of the capitol much disturbed. First, there was talk of a committee of the house. Friends of Mr. Roosevelt held that this would accentuate the position of the senate, so the matter was dropped.

W. F. Jones, E. Eleventh St., Ada, Okla., says: "It is over a year and a half since I used Doan's Kidney Pills and received a cure from a severe case of kidney complaint. There was a dull ache through my loins and too frequent passages of the kidney secretions caused me much annoyance. I tried a number of remedies, but received only temporary relief until I used Doan's Kidney Pills. I have had no occasion to take a kidney remedy since then, as the cure Doan's Kidney Pills effected has proven to be a permanent one."

MORE STUDENTS DID ACTUAL NORMAL WORK HERE LAST REGULAR SESSION THAN ANY OTHER NEW NORMAL IN THE STATE—SUMMER TERM ATTENDED BY MORE TEACHERS THAN WAS EXPECTED AT THIS EARLY DATE.

There are up to this time approximately two hundred and fifty students enrolled for the summer session of the E-C N. and more are coming in every day. Johnston county alone has furnished about seventy of this number and ten new students from there will be here today.

To make a long story, short there is a sufficient number of students now in each department to give every instructor in the normal a big class and before the enrollment is complete each professor will have all he can possibly give justice.

There are two things noticeable at the normal which augurs the highest excellence and ultimately the greatest success of any normal in the state—from an educational viewpoint. First every body is systematically busy—there is nothing rushing no disorder; and, secondly, by far the greater number of the students are doing credit work.

That means they are going to school to attain scholarship, mental and spiritual development and that that they will return to the E. C. N. from year to year and push on to graduation. There is a vast difference between this school and some normals that do practically nothing more than high school work, followed by a short term cramming for a certificate.

During the last regular session recently closed more students did actual normal work here than in any other new normal in the state, numbering about three and one fourth hundreds. This does not include the fifty who enrolled for the spring review course. This article is not written as a treatise on normal schools—on the other hand we wanted to say that the E. C. N. is a real normal where teachers are really educated

and that things are looking business like at the building.

Besides the regular faculty of 21 teachers, there are three additions to the number who are members of the summer, normal faculty, viz: T. B. Limer of Allen who has the commercial branches; H. A. Bower, of Ravia, with the departments of Oklahoma history and agriculture; and E. L. Newman of Hickory who has civics and grammar.

President Briles has just returned from a chase after the capitol of Oklahoma, after running up to Guthrie and back to Oklahoma City he finally determined the location at the Lee-Huskins hotel. He says there are two car loads of furniture on track for the new building. A great part of this load of furniture is composed of the opera chairs which seat the auditorium. The furniture is being transferred to the new building.

SENATOR GORE SAYS CAPITAL REMOVAL LEGAL

Washington, D. C. June 14.—Senator Gore Monday entered vigorous denial to the statement that in any way had he participated in the capitol location fight. Said the Lawton Senator: "I have never made a statement to anyone respecting to the propriety of removing the state capitol from Guthrie to any other place. I have never regarded the act of congress locating the state capital as constitutional or binding. If congress could fix the location for five years it could fix it for five hundred years and in the same manner would regulate the policy and politics of any state."

Senator Gore was credited with having sent the following telegram to a Guthrie newspaper: "The proposed capital removal is an iniquitous measure and violates the spirit and letter of the constitution which says the capitol shall remain at Guthrie until 1913. I am unalterably opposed to the bill, which I have carefully read and I advise all my friends to vote against it."

TANLEQUAH NORMAL INN BURNS

Building Partly Saved—Several Occupants Have Narrow Escape.

Tanlequah, Okla., June 14.—The Normal Inn, one of the leading hotels of this place and filled with students here attending the summer normal, burned this morning shortly after midnight. A dozen or more girls sleeping in the upper rooms, escaped in their night gowns, saving nothing from their wardrobes. Mrs. Pitchford, wife of Judge John H. Pitchford, a cripple, was carried out of the burning building, and Dr. Walter Reed and a student of the normal jumped from an upper story window.

The fire caught on the lower floor of the building, a part of which was used as a fruit and grocery store and shortly thereafter a can of gasoline in the building exploded throwing the fire everywhere. The smoke boiled into the upper rooms and some of the sleeping occupants were so confused when awakened that they could not find the stairway and jumped from the windows.

The building is of concrete construction and was partially saved. It is covered by insurance, as were the on the lower floor. The girls in the building were taken in charge by their friends and given homes and clothing, the normal faculty taking care of a large number of them who were strangers here and had just come in to attend the normal which opened the summer term yesterday.

ACCORDING TO LAW.

People Have Spoken, According to Law Capital at Oklahoma City.

Oklahoma City, Okla., June 14.—The sudden removal by Governor Haskell of the state capital from Guthrie to Oklahoma City ought not have been a surprise to any one at all familiar with the law of the state. There is and can be no question as to what the law is. Attorneys all agree as to what our laws provide in the matter. The surprise comes only to those who were eagerly fighting for or against the bill lost sight of the plain provisions and immediate effect of the law itself.

Under the provisions of our laws when a measure properly initiated by the people is carried by the people, it becomes effective at once. This is indisputable. Hence when a substantial majority of the people voted to locate the capital of Oklahoma the city selected becomes forthwith the capital of the state. The governor had no discretion in the matter. He could violate the law, he could ignore it, or he could obey it. There should be no surprise, whatever, that the governor chooses to obey the law.

There can be only one capital. The people have made Oklahoma City that capital. If the election was legal, then Oklahoma City is that one state capital. If the election was not legal then the question of its illegality must be determined by the courts. The governor is an executive to enforce the law, not a judicial officer to interpret the law nor a legislative officer to create a law. Acting as an executive upon the advice of the ablest legal counsel, Governor Haskell is simply recognizing a law the people themselves have made.

PRISONERS ESCAPE ACUSE OFFICER OF BRIBERY

Hugo, Okla., June 14.—Five prisoners escaped from the county chain gang at Fort Townson today and one of them, a negro named Alexander Green, serving a $200 fine and three month's jail sentence, walked to Hugo and surrendered to the sheriff. He also has a felony charge against him.

Green related a sensational story. He told Sheriff Connell and Jailor Dewese that an officer had asked the five men to run off from guard in order that the guard might lose his job for neglect of duty. The prisoner also said that the officer had promised the men half a gallon of whiskey as a bribe to make their escape. The matter is being investigated by the sheriff and county attorney.

Four of the fugitives have not been recaptured.

TWO GUARDS AT GUTHRIE

ONE PREVENTS INTERFERENCE WITH HASKELL'S ORDERS, THE OTHER RETAINS RECORDS.

SEARCHES OFFICIAL'S GRIP

Haskell Demands Apology—Martial Law May Be Declared—Chief Executive Office at Oklahoma City.

Guthrie, Ok., June 14.—In Guthrie the state house is under a double guard. One is maintained by the state to prevent interference with carrying out any orders which may be issued from Oklahoma City, and another, a sort of espionage, is kept by order of the court to prevent removal of any of the records from Guthrie or doing anything that smacks of capital removal.

Considerable Indignation Aroused.

An incident today caused considerable indignation among state house employees and some disturbance at the executive office in Oklahoma City. State Labor Commissioner Daugherty left the state house today carrying a grip, en route to another town for the purpose of attending, it is stated, to litigation in connection with his department. When a short distance from the state house the commissioner was halted by a police officer, who told him of the order of the court and searched the grip.

Daugherty protested that he was traveling to transact business of the department which could not be attended to in Guthrie.

Court's Vigilance Not Relaxed.

As further indication that the court's vigilance has not been relaxed, formal notice was served upon State Auditor Trapp today, cautioning him against transferring any portion of his office or official records to Oklahoma City. Warrants in payment of claims against the state are drawn through the auditor's office, but it is the understanding tonight that nothing of a final nature is being done.

Haskell Demands Apologies.

When information of the Daugherty incident reached Gov. Haskell in Oklahoma City, he sent long dispatches to Attorney General West, demanding apologies be made both by Mayor Farquarson and Sheriff Mahoney. The sheriff could not be located tonight.

Mayor Farquarson stated that he had received the governor's demand from the attorney general, and that if the policeman exceeded his authority as a city employee, and offered either indignities or violence to Mr. Daugherty, he would apologize to the labor commissioner as mayor of the city.

Statement by Mayor of Guthrie. "That is as far as I will go," declared the mayor over the telephone tonight, "and as for Gov. Haskell, I do not consider him in this case in any respect. If the police officer was acting as indicated, it was as a deputy under Sheriff Mahoney, and not for the city of Guthrie."

Gov. Haskell stated in Oklahoma City Monday that if the issue was forced he would declare the city of Guthrie under martial law.

Two Capitals at Present.

Oklahoma has a dual capital, and while men and newspaper discuss the situation more acrimoniously, courts and lawyers wrangle over injunctions.

Interest in the situation is intense. Adjt. Gen. Frank Canton of the First Regiment of Oklahoma National Guard conferred with Gov. Haskell today after it was reported from Guthrie that State Labor Commissioner Daugherty had been halted by a Guthrie policeman and his grip searched.

When the Adjutant General came out of the governor's office he said: "If there's anything we need in Guthrie, it takes but a little order from the governor and we can go and get it."

Gov. Haskell has repeatedly announced that he meant to resort to no manner of force or stealth in the removal of the capital but the searching of a state officer's grip in Guthrie today caused the governor to demand of Mayor Farquarson of Guthrie an apology.

State officers are going back and forth between Guthrie and Oklahoma City. A majority of them apparently consider Oklahoma City the capital. State Superintendent Cameron said today that while his office in Guthrie is open, the business there transacted is a though it were transacted in Oklahoma City.

The Guthrie Daily Leader, edited and published by Leslie G. Niblack, son-in-law of Gov. Haskell, prints partial and complete returns indicating that the bill has carried only by 5,368, with several counties yet to hear from. The same issue reproduces an editorial from the Muskogee Times-Democrat severely criticizing state officials for what the paper terms as "their indirect expressed contempt for the court's mandate."

LIQUOR QUESTION UP TO VOTERS

SUPREME COURT DECISIONS OPEN WAY FOR HIGH LICENSE ADVOCATES.

Proposed Suffrage Amendment Up to Governor—Election Necessary.

Guthrie, Okla., June 14.—That the initiative and referendum will be used on three different big questions in Oklahoma within the next few months, and possibly on four, is now certain. The supreme court has denied the motion of the Anti-Saloon league for a rehearing in the case attacking the legality of the 57,000 name petition initiating an amendment to the state constitution abolishing prohibition and setting up a system of local option and high license, and the petitions are now up to the governor for him to call an election.

A decision was also handed down in the women's suffrage case, and the bill proposing to eliminate the word "male" from the electorate provisions of the state constitution are now up to the governor for him to call an election also.

The governor yesterday issued his proclamation calling an election on the "grandfather clause" amendment to the constitution under which it is hoped to disfranchise the ignorant negro vote of the state.

The supreme court a week ago affirmed the validity of the "New Jerusalem" capital location bill, and that must either be voted on or put out of the way somehow.

Governor Haskell must set a special date for voting on the women suffrage and anti-prohibition questions or else these automatically come to vote November 2.

lahoma territorial administration paid
$100 for typewriters. A democratic
state administration is now paying $72.90 for the same machine. Thus
a democratic administration saves on

"Let the people know" that Oklahoma territory paid $8.00 per ton for

same grade of coal for $4.14. Thus a democratic administration saves on
every ton of coal purchased $3.86—
almost fifty per cent.

The printing of election supplies

KENTUCKY GREETES MURRAY.

Blue Grass State Committee Contributes $180 to Campaign Fund
and Refers to Kentucky
Style.

Tishomingo, Okla., June 15—Hon
H L Muldrow, secretary to Murray's
campaign committee, stated to your
reporter that he was very much grati-
fied at the reports from all portions
of the state touching the progress
of Bill Murray's campaign for gover-
nor. He said one of the most gratifying things to him was that Col
J Sol Miller and a group of friends
living in the country precincts a
short distance from Louisville Ky.,
sent a contribution to Murray's campaign fund of $180, which they stated
was for the purpose of showing
how Kentucky regarded Murray.
The Reformer of the Southwest
Col Miller said "I desire to say
that the sentiments expressed by the Hon Lee Cruce at Oklahoma City
will find no place with the right kind
of Kentuckians when he said if there
was anything said against his character or his family he would hold the
party responsible in the old Kentucky
style. Kentucky has no style other
than that of the people of the other
states. The fact is a true Kentuckian
never climbs a hill until he gets to
it. You may rest assured that he never
goes around with a chip on his
shoulder for somebody else to knock
off to get a fight. Kentuckians are
like other people, if insulted they
will resent it at home or elsewhere,
and I am satisfied that every Ken-
tuckian in Oklahoma views this matter just as I do."

Mr Muldrow said that these were
not the only complimentary letters
touching Murray and his candidacy
that have been received from other
states.

Rinard, John D, Ada, Pontotoc

Stevens, Mathew H, Higley, Wood-
ward county, $600
Total, $11,400

We see from the above figures
that a democratic administration is
done for the common people of the
state. This money could have been
loaned to bankers at a low rate of interest, and the bankers could have
then loaned the money to farmers at
the maximum rate of interest. But
the state loans the money direct to
the farmer and instead of enriching
capitalists it assists the farmers in
improving their farms and their
homes. Since the organization of this department $1,000,000 has been loaned
on Oklahoma farms. Who can estimate the good results that have accrued from such a policy? And who
can doubt that a republican administration would have favored the
bankers with these funds and left
the farmers without participation in
this bounty of the state.

CROP CONDITIONS ARE ENCOURAGING

Production of Wheat and Oats Largest in Several Years--Harvest is Nearly Over--Bumper in Corn Promised.

As its first general report on the crops of Texas and Oklahoma for the current season. The News presents the individual reports of 700 correspondents, written on June 8, which reports, as a rule, show very encouraging conditions and prospects in respect to the various crops now growing or in process of harvesting.

The cotton acreage for Texas is shown to be 1026 of the acreage planted in 1909 and for Oklahoma 1142 per cent. Acreage abandoned because of poor stands, and land laid out for cotton, but seeded to other crops has been deducted.

Condition of cotton is compared with the condition at the corresponding period in 1909, and is not compared with normal or ten-year average the standard used by the United States Department of Agriculture. The condition of cotton in Texas is shown to be 83 per cent better than on June 8, 1909, in Oklahoma 77 per cent better.

The averages by districts comparisons being given with 1909 (100 representing acreage and condition in that year) follow:

District—	Acreage	Condition	Bales Ginned 1909
East Texas	1083	1013	332 376
North Texas	1015	1046	504 467
Central Texas	989	1080	774 247
South Texas	994	1092	249 934
Northwest Texas	1045	1107	185 334
Middle West Texas	1047	1216	160 667
Southwest Texas	1096	1147	171 541
Panhandle and West	1103	1141	34 495
All Texas	1026	1088	2,522 811
Oklahoma	1142	1077	670 257

Reports on the grain crops of Oklahoma indicate an increased acreage of wheat corn and oats with conditions averaging above those of 1909. Corn will average an increased acreage of 10 per cent with conditions improved 15 per cent, wheat an increased acreage of 10 per cent with conditions 12 per cent better, oats an increase of 20 per cent in acreage with conditions 12 per cent better. Many of the same conditions prevailing in Texas prevailed in Oklahoma early in the season.

Federal Court of Appeals Vacates Temporary Restraining Order.

New York June 14—The United States Circuit Court of Appeals in an unanimous decision handed down today vacated the temporary injunction obtained by the Wright company, restraining the Herring-Curtiss company and Louis Paulhan, the French aviator, from using aeroplanes, which the Wright brothers contended were infringements on their patents.

The preliminary injunction was granted by Judge Hazol sitting at Buffalo, and the restraining order against Paulhan was issued by Judge Hand in this district. Both injunctions are vacated pending the trial of the suits.

Court's Decision.

The decision said in part: "There is no dispute as to the proposition that the question whether or not there has been infringement of this patent however broadly it may be construed depends upon the question whether or not in defendant's machine a tendency to spin or swerve is checked or counteracted by the operation of the vertical rudder. That of course, on its theoretical and on its practical side is a question of fact."

"In this record upon the question of fact there is a sharp conflict of evidence, numerous affidavits testifying. All their statements are ex parte."

affidavits made without any opportunity to test their probative force by cross-examination. Under such circumstances it seems to us, irrespective of any of the other questions in the case that infringement was not so clearly established as to justify a preliminary injunction."

TISHOMINGO MAN HEADS TROOPS ON TRIP TO GREET COL. ROOSEVELT.

Dr. H. T. Saffersens who left for Oklahoma City some time ago, did not intend to remain there, but on account of the illness of his partner he remained for a few weeks. Dr. Saffersens is expected home in a few days.

WILL SPELL 'EM DOWN

Miss Myrtle Donaghey, a student of the Allen public school, was here yesterday en route to Oklahoma City where she will enter the state spelling contest, representing Pontotoc county. To be sure it is quite an honor to represent this county in a state spelling contest, but Miss Donaghey merits it, and of course, everybody in Pontotoc is interested in the state spelling bee and believes Miss Donaghey can turn 'em down.

Tonight, in the Chamber of Commerce rooms at Oklahoma City, the best speller among the school children of Oklahoma will be selected. Many children from the various counties in the state are listed in the contest, each having been picked for this honor of representing Oklahoma in a national contest to be held in Boston in August, under the auspices of the National Educational association.

About a month ago it was decided that Oklahoma should have a representative, and since that time the various county superintendents have been holding local contests to find their best spellers. For the meeting of these county winners Wednesday night there is a list of 2,000 words, the hardest that could be found. The winner in the contest will go to Boston.

A PATRIOTIC SERVICE.

At Christian Church Monday Evening Next.

At the regular monthly meeting of the Brotherhood of Disciples of Christ at Christian church next Monday evening, a patriotic program will be rendered.

These programs, which are always thoroughly fraught with living issues presented from the christian man's standpoint are very helpful and interesting. Such programs as are rendered will mean much to the ethics of a city. Membership in the organization is not confined to church members, but any chivalrous and virtuous citizen.

The program follows, and is open to the entire public. Song—"America" Responsive reading Isa. 6, led by Geo. Thompson.

New County Board of Examiners.

The new county board of examiners is composed of County Supt. T. F. Pierce, chairman; T. B. Liner, Allen; and W. T. Melton, Center.

The new members of the board, Messrs. Liner and Melton need no introduction to the teachers and citizens of this county. Prof. Liner is the superintendent of the Allen public schools and the fact that the people of Allen re-elected him from year to year with an advance in salary is enough said. Prof. Melton holds the same record at Center. That Pontotoc county examining board will have as its members men who are in every respect qualified for the place will not be questioned.

UNFORTUNATE WOMEN AND POKER PLAYERS ARRESTED IN HARRIS HOTEL.

Monday night, Charlie Brady, city officer, noticed a little more than the usual enterprise around the Harris hotel and quietly looking further became convinced that several different character of crimes were being committed in the alleged reformed Harris hotel.

It appeared to Brady that the apparent evil and illegal actions evidently in progress throughout the hotel were organized with too much cunning and under too much protection to capture any one unless he was assisted. He called in Chief of Police George Culver and together they made a raid. Considering the protection afforded the unfortunate women, and the men engaged in the poker game, it was no less than a "coup de etat" that resulted in Officers Culver and Brady arresting several men engaged in playing poker and some poor women who were registered at the hotel, but who appeared to be reserved to no particular rooms.

The five arrested made bond and the next morning plead guilty to the crimes with which they were charged. When there is considered the obstacles confronting, the city officers are to be congratulated that they were successful in the Harris Hotel raid.

NUMBER 61

EAST CENTRAL STATE NORMAL A SCHOOL FOR TEACHERS

MORE STUDENTS DID ACTUAL NORMAL WORK HERE LAST REGULAR SESSION THAN ANY OTHER NEW NORMAL IN THE STATE—SUMMER TERM ATTENDED BY MORE TEACHERS THAN WAS EXPECTED AT THIS EARLY DATE.

There are up to this time approximately two hundred and fifty students enrolled for the summer session of the E-C N and more are coming in every day Johnston county alone has furnished about seventy of this number and ten new students from there will be here today.

To make a long story, short there is a sufficient number of students now in each department to give every instructor in the normal a big class and before the enrollment is complete each professor will have all he can possibly give justice.

There are two things noticeable at the normal which augurs the highest excellence and ultimately the greatest success of any normal in the state—from an educational viewpoint. First every body is systematically busy—there is nothing rushing no disorder, and, secondly, by far the greater number of the students are doing credit work.

That means they are going to school to attain scholarship, mental and spiritual development and that that they will return to the E-C N. from year to year and push on to graduation. There is a vast difference between this school and some normals that do practically nothing more than high school work, followed by a short term cramming for a certificate.

During the last regular session recently closed more students did actual normal work here than in any other new normal in the state, numbering about three and one fourth hundreds. This does not include the fifty who enrolled for the spring review course. This article is not written as a treatise on normal schools—on the other hand we wanted to say that the E-C N is a real normal where teachers are really educated

and that things are looking business like at the building.

Besides the regular faculty of 21 teachers, there are three additions to the number who are members of the summer normal faculty, viz T B Limer of Allen who has the commercial branches, H A Bower, of Ravia, with the departments of Oklahoma history and agriculture, and E L Newman of Hickory who has civics and grammar.

President Briles has just returned from a chase after the capitol of Oklahoma, after running up to Guthrie and back to Oklahoma City he finally determined the location at the Lee-Huskins hotel. He says there are two car loads of furniture on track for the new building. A great part of this load of furniture is composed of the opera chairs which seat the auditorium. The furniture is being transferred to the new building.

SENATOR GORE SAYS CAPITAL REMOVAL LEGAL

Washington, D C, June 14—Senator Gore Monday entered vigorous denial to the statement that in any way had he participated in the capitol location fight. Said the Lawton Senator: "I have never made a statement to anyone respecting the propriety of removing the state capitol from Guthrie to any other place. I have never regarded the act of congress locating the state capital as constitutional or binding. If congress could fix the location for five years it could fix it for five hundred years and in the same manner would regulate the policy and politics of any state."

Senator Gore was credited with having sent the following telegram to a Guthrie newspaper: "The proposed capital removal is an iniquitous measure and violates the spirit and letter of the constitution which says the capitol shall remain at Guthrie until 1913. I am unalterably opposed to the bill, which I have carefully read and I advise all my friends to vote against it."

Building Partly Saved—Several Occupants Have Narrow Escape.

Tanlequah, Okla., June 14—The Normal Inn, one of the leading hotels of this place and filled with students here attending the summer normal, burned this morning shortly after midnight. A dozen or more girls sleeping in the upper rooms, escaped in their night gowns, saving nothing from their wardrobes. Mrs Pitchford, wife of Judge John H Pitchford, a cripple, was carried out of the burning building, and Dr Walter Reed and a student of the normal jumped from an upper story window.

The fire caught on the lower floor of the building, a part of which was used as a fruit and grocery store and shortly thereafter a can of gasoline in the building exploded throwing the fire everywhere. The smoke boiled into the upper rooms and some of the sleeping occupants were so confused when awakened that they could not find the stairway and jumped from the windows.

The building is of concrete construction and was partially saved. It is covered by insurance, as were the on the lower floor. The girls in the building were taken in charge by their friends and given homes and clothing, the normal faculty taking care of a large number of them who were strangers here and had just come in to attend the normal which opened the summer term yesterday.

ACCORDING TO LAW.

People Have Spoken, According to Law Capital at Oklahoma City.

Oklahoma City, Okla., June 14—The sudden removal by Governor Haskell of the state capital from Guthrie to Oklahoma City ought not have been a surprise to any one at all familiar with the law of the state. There is and can be no question as to what the law is. Attorneys all agree as to what our laws provide in the matter. The surprise comes only to those who were eagerly fighting for or against the bill lost sight of the plain provisions and immediate effect of the law itself.

Under the provisions of our laws when a measure properly initiated by the people is carried by the people, it becomes effective at once. This is indisputable. Hence when a substantial majority of the people voted to locate the capital of Oklahoma the city selected becomes forthwith the capital of the state. The governor had no discretion in the matter. He could violate the law, he could ignore it, or he could obey it. There should be no surprise, whatever, that the governor chooses to obey the law.

There can be only one capital. The people have made Oklahoma City that capital. If the election was legal, then Oklahoma City is that one state capital. If the election was not legal then the question of its illegality must be determined by the courts. The governor is an executive to enforce the law, not a judicial officer to interpret the law nor a legislative officer to create a law. Acting as an executive upon the advice of the ablest legal counsel, Governor Haskell is simply recognizing a law the people themselves have made.

PRISONERS ESCAPE ACCUSE OFFICER OF BRIBERY

Hugo, Okla., June 14—Five prisoners escaped from the county chain gang at Fort Townsend today and one of them, a negro named Alexander Green, serving a $200 fine and three month's jail sentence, walked to Hugo and surrendered to the sheriff. He also has a felony charge against him.

Green related a sensational story. He told Sheriff Connell and Jailer Dewese that an officer had asked the five men to run off from guard in order that the guard might lose his job for neglect of duty. The prisoner also said that the officer had promised the men half a gallon of whiskey as a bribe to make their escape. The matter is being investigated by the sheriff and county attorney.

Four of the fugitives have not been recaptured.

TWO GUARDS AT GUTHRIE

ONE PREVENTS INTERFERENCE WITH HASKELL'S ORDERS, THE OTHER RETAINS RECORDS.

SEARCHES OFFICIAL'S GRIP

Haskell Demands Apology—Martial Law May Be Declared—Chief Executive Office at Oklahoma City.

Guthrie, Ok., June 14—In Guthrie the state house is under a double guard. One is maintained by the state to prevent interference with carrying out any orders which may be issued from Oklahoma City, and another, a sort of espionage, is kept by order of the court to prevent removal of any of the records from Guthrie or doing anything that smacks of capital removal.

Considerable Indignation Aroused.

An incident today caused considerable indignation among state house employees and some disturbance at the executive office in Oklahoma City. State Labor Commissioner Daugherty left the state house today carrying a grip, en route to another town for the purpose of attending, it is stated, to litigation in connection with his department. When a short distance from the state house the commissioner was halted by a police officer, who told him of the order of the court and searched the grip. Daugherty protested that he was traveling to transact business of the department which could not be attended to in Guthrie.

Court's Vigilance Not Relaxed.

As further indication that the court's vigilance has not been relaxed, formal notice was served upon State Auditor Trapp today, cautioning him against transferring any portion of his office or official records to Oklahoma City. Warrants in payment of claims against the state are drawn through the auditor's office, but it is the understanding tonight that nothing of a final nature is being done.

Haskell Demands Apologies.

When information of the Daugherty incident reached Gov Haskell in Oklahoma City, he sent long dispatches to Attorney General West, demanding apologies be made both by Mayor Farquarson and Sheriff Mahoney. The sheriff could not be located tonight.

Mayor Farquarson stated that he had received the governor's demand from the attorney general, and that if the policeman exceeded his authority as a city employee, and offered either indignities or violence to Mr. Daugherty, he would apologize to the labor commissioner as mayor of the city.

Statement by Mayor of Guthrie.

"That is as far as I will go," declared the mayor over the telephone tonight, "and as for Gov Haskell, I do not consider him in this case in any respect. If the police officer was acting as indicated, it was as a deputy under Sheriff Mahoney, and not for the city of Guthrie."

Gov Haskell stated in Oklahoma City Monday that if the issue was forced he would declare the city of Guthrie under martial law.

Two Capitals at Present.

Oklahoma has a dual capital, and while men and newspaper discuss the situation more acrimoniously, courts and lawyers wrangle over injunctions.

Interest in the situation is intense. Adjt Gen Frank Canton of the First Regiment of Oklahoma National Guard conferred with Gov Haskell today after it was reported from Guthrie that State Labor Commissioner Daugherty had been halted by a Guthrie policeman and his grip searched.

When the Adjutant General came out of the governor's office he said: "If there's anything we need in Guthrie, it takes but a little order from the governor and we can go and get it."

Gov Haskell has repeatedly announced that he meant to resort to no manner of force or stealth in the removal of the capital but the searching of a state officer's grip in Guthrie today caused the governor to demand of Mayor Farquarson of Guthrie an apology.

State officers are going back and forth between Guthrie and Oklahoma City. A majority of them apparently consider Oklahoma City the capital. State Superintendent Cameron of the Department of Education said today that while his office in Guthrie is open, the business there transacted is a though it were transacted in Oklahoma City.

The Guthrie Daily Leader, edited and published by Leslie G Niblack, son-in-law of Gov Haskell, prints partial and complete returns indicating that the bill has carried only by 5,368, with several counties yet to hear from. The same issue reproduces an editorial from the Muskogee Times-Democrat severely criticizing state officials for what the paper terms as "their indirect expressed contempt for the court's mandate."

LIQUOR QUESTION UP TO VOTERS

SUPREME COURT DECISIONS OPEN WAY FOR HIGH LICENSE ADVOCATES.

Proposed Suffrage Amendment Up to Governor—Election Necessary.

Guthrie, Okla., June 14—That the initiative and referendum will be used on three different big questions in Oklahoma within the next few months, and possibly on four, is now certain. The supreme court has denied the motion of the Anti-Saloon league for a rehearing in the case attacking the legality of the 57,000 name petition initiating an amendment to the state constitution abolishing prohibition and setting up a system of local option and high license, and the petitions are now up to the governor for him to call an election.

A decision was also handed down in the women's suffrage case, and the bill proposing to eliminate the word "male" from the electorate provisions of the state constitution are now up to the governor for him to call an election.

The governor yesterday issued his proclamation calling an election on the "grandfather clause" amendment to the constitution under which it is hoped to disfranchise the ignorant negro vote of the state.

The supreme court a week ago affirmed the validity of the "New Jerusalem" capital location bill, and that must either be voted on or put out of the way somehow.

Governor Haskell must set a special date for voting on the women suffrage and anti-prohibition questions or else these automatically come to vote November 2.

KENTUCKY GREET'S MURRAY.

Blue Grass State Committee Contri-
butes $180 to Campaign Fund
and Refers to Kentucky
Style.
Tishomingo, Okla., June 15.—Hon
H L Muldrow, secretary to Murray's
campaign committee, stated to your
reporter that he was very much grati-
fied at the reports from all portions
of the state touching the progress
of Bill Murray's campaign for governor. He said one of the most gratifying things to him was that Col
J Sol Miller and a group of friends
living in the country precincts a
short distance from Louisville Ky,
sent a contribution to Murray's campaign fund of $180, which they stated
was for the purpose of showing
how Kentucky regarded Murray
The Reformer of the Southwest
Col Miller said "I desire to say
that the sentiments expressed by the Hon Lee Cruce at Oklahoma City
will find no place with the right kind
of Kentuckians when he said if there
was anything said against his character or his family he would hold the
party responsible in the old Kentucky
style. Kentucky has no style other
than that of the people of the other
states. The fact is a true Kentuckian
never climbs a hill until he gets to
it. You may rest assured that he never
goes around with a chip on his
shoulder for somebody else to knock
off to get a fight. Kentuckians are
like other people, if insulted they
will resent it at home or elsewhere,
and I am satisfied that every Ken-
tuckian in Oklahoma views this matter just as I do."
Mr Muldrow said that these were
not the only complimentary letters
touching Murray and his candidacy
that have been received from other
states.

We see from the above figures
that a democratic administration is doing for the common people of the state. This money could have been
loaned to bankers at a low rate of interest, and the bankers could have
then loaned the money to farmers at
the maximum rate of interest. But
the state loans the money direct to
the farmer and instead of enriching
capitalists it assists the farmers in
improving their farms and their
homes. Since the organization of this department $1,000,000 has been loaned
on Oklahoma farms. Who can estimate the good results that have ac-rued from such a policy? And who can doubt that a republican administration would have favored the
bankers with these funds and left
the farmers without participation in
this bounty of the state.

CROP CONDITIONS ARE ENCOURAGING

Production of Wheat and Oats Largest in Several Years--Harvest is Nearly Over--Bumper
in Corn Promised.

As its first general report on the crops of Texas and Oklahoma for the current season The News presents the individual reports of 700 correspondents, written on June 8, which reports, as a rule, show very encouraging conditions and prospects in respect to the various crops now
growing or in process of harvesting.
The cotton acreage for Texas is shown to be 1026 of the acreage planted in 1909 and for Oklahoma 1142 per cent. Acreage abandoned
because of poor stands, and land laid out for cotton, but seeded to other
crops has been deducted.
Condition of cotton is compared with the condition at the corresponding period in 1909, and is not compared with normal or ten-year average the standard used by the United States Department of Agriculture.
The condition of cotton in Texas is shown to be 8.8 per cent better than on June 8, 1909, in Oklahoma 7.7 per cent better.
The averages by districts comparisons being given with 1909 (100
representing acreage and condition in that year) follow:

District—	Acreage	Condition	Bales Ginned 1909
East Texas	1083	1013	332 876
North Texas	1015	1046	504 467
Central Texas	989	1080	774 247
South Texas	994	1092	249 934
Northwest Texas	1045	1107	135 384
Middle West Texas	1047	1216	160 667
Southwest Texas	1006	1147	171 541
Panhandle and West	1103	1141	34 495
All Texas	1026	1088	2,522 811
Oklahoma	1142	1077	670 257

OKLAHOMA.
Reports on the grain crops of Oklahoma indicate an increased acreage of wheat corn and oats with conditions averaging above those of 1909. Corn will average an increased acreage of 10 per cent with conditions improved 15 per cent, wheat an increased acreage of 10 per cent
with conditions 12 per cent better, oats an increase of 20 per cent in acreage with conditions 12 per cent better. Many of the same conditions prevailing in Texas prevailed in Oklahoma early in the season.

WRIGHTS HAVE LOST INJUNCTION SUIT

Federal Court of Appeals Vacates
Temporary Restraining Order.

New York June 14.—The United States Circuit Court of Appeals in
an unanimous decision handed down
today vacated the temporary injunction obtained by the Wright company, restraining the Herring-Curtiss
company and Louis Paulhan, the French aviator, from using aero-
planes, which the Wright brothers
contended were infringements on
their patents.
The preliminary injunction was granted by Judge Hazel sitting at Buffalo, and the restraining order
against Paulhan was issued by Judge
Hand in this district. Both injunc-
tions are vacated pending the trial
of the suits.
Court's Decision.
The decision said in part
"There is no dispute as to the
proposition that the question whether or not there has been infringement
of this patent however broadly
it may be construed depends upon
the question whether or not in de-
fendants machine a tendency to spin
or swerve is checked or counteracted by the operation of the vertical rudder. That of course, on its theoretical and on its practical side is a
question of fact.
"In this record upon the question
of fact there is a sharp conflict of
evidence, numerous affidavits testify-
ing. All their statements are ex parte
affidavits made without any opportunity to test their probative force
by cross-examination. Under such circumstances it seems to us, irrespective of any of the other questions
in the case that infringement was
not so clearly established as to justify a preliminary injunction."

WILL SPELL 'EM DOWN

Miss Myrtle Donaghey, a student of the Allen public school, was here yesterday en route to Oklahoma City where she will enter the state spelling contest, representing Pontotoc county. To be sure it is quite an honor to represent this county in a state spelling contest, but Miss Donaghey merits it, and of course, everybody in Pontotoc is interested in the state spelling bee and believes Miss Donaghey can turn 'em down.

Tonight, in the Chamber of Commerce rooms at Oklahoma City, the best speller among the school children of Oklahoma will be selected. Many children from the various counties in the state are listed in the contest, each having been picked for this honor of representing Oklahoma in a national contest to be held in Boston in August, under the auspices of the National Educational association.

About a month ago it was decided that Oklahoma should have a representative, and since that time the various county superintendents have been holding local contests to find their best spellers. For the meeting of these county winners Wednesday night there is a list of 2,000 words, the hardest that could be found. The winner in the contest will go to Boston.

A PATRIOTIC SERVICE.

At Christian Church Monday Evening Next.

At the regular monthly meeting of the Brotherhood of Disciples of Christ at Christian church next Monday evening, a patriotic program will be rendered.

These programs, which are always thoroughly fraught with living issues presented from the christian man's standpoint are very helpful and interesting. Such programs as are rendered will mean much to the ethics of a city. Membership in the organization is not confined to church members, but any chivalrous and virtuous citizen.

The program follows, and is open to the entire public.

New County Board of Examiners.

The new county board of examiners is composed of County Supt. T. F. Pierce, chairman; T. E. Liner, Allen; and W. T. Melton, Center.

The new members of the board, Messrs. Liner and Melton need no introduction to the teachers and citizens of this county. Prof. Liner is the superintendent of the Allen public schools and the fact that the people of Allen re-elected him from year to year with an advance in salary is enough said. Prof. Melton holds the same record at Center. That Pontotoc county examining board will have as its members men who are in every respect qualified for the place will not be questioned.

UNFORTUNATE WOMEN AND POKER PLAYERS ARRESTED IN HARRIS HOTEL.

Monday night, Charlie Brady, city officer, noticed a little more than the usual enterprise around the Harris hotel and quietly looking further became convinced that several different character of crimes were being committed in the alleged reformed Harris hotel.

It appeared to Brady that the apparent evil and illegal actions evidently in progress throughout the hotel were organized with too much cunning and under too much protection to capture any one unless he was assisted. He called in Chief of Police George Culver and together they made a raid. Considering the protection afforded the unfortunate women, and the men engaged in the poker game, it was no less than a "coup de etat" that resulted in Officers Culver and Brady arresting several men engaged in playing poker and some poor women who were registered at the hotel, but who appeared to be reserved to no particular rooms.

The five arrested made bond and the next morning plead guilty to the crimes with which they were charged.

When there is considered the obstacles confronting the city officers are to be congratulated that they were successful in the Harris Hotel raid.

CITIZENS MEETING—ORATORY AND MUSIC

Service begins promptly at 8 o'clock.

Jerry is a fine young man who has many friends here who regret his leaving.

WELCOME IDEA

Congress Will Not Send Committee to Welcome Roosevelt Saturday.

Washington, June 14.—Because the senate objected to sending a committee of its members to meet Col. Roosevelt he will land in New York on Saturday without an official welcome from Congress. As the band of those who have received letters from the former president continued to grow the few members of the house left out started a movement for a joint committee of congress to give him an official welcome. It was assumed this might take in those who were left who wanted to go.

Mr. Roosevelt was never on especially cordial terms with the senate. When the house movement was well under way some one suggested that the senate be consulted, this was done. "What for?" asked the pro-salutary members of the upper house. The scouts of the house went back to their end of the capitol much disturbed. First, there was talk of a committee of the house. Friends of Mr. Roosevelt held that this would accentuate the position of the senate, so the matter was dropped.

DEEDS, NOT WORDS.

Ada People Have Absolute Proof of Deeds at Home.

It's not words, but deeds that prove true merit.

The deeds of Doan's Kidney Pills. For kidney sufferers, have made their local reputation. Proof lies in the testimony of Ada people who have been cured to stay cured.

W. F. Jones, E. Eleventh St., Ada, Okla., says: "It is over a year and a half since I used Doan's Kidney Pills and received a cure from a severe case of kidney complaint. There was a dull ache through my loins and too frequent passages of the kidney secretions caused me much annoyance. I tried a number of remedies, but received only temporary relief until I used Doan's Kidney Pills. I have had no occasion to take a kidney remedy since then, as the cure Doan's Kidney Pills effected has proven to be a permanent one."

The Topaz Ring of His Forefathers

By CLARISSA MACHIE

Jack Winton slipped the ring on Esther's slim finger and kissed her tenderly. "This plights our troth, sweetheart; it is the betrothal ring of the Wintons; my great-grandfather bought it as a marriage ring for his wife and since then it has been used by the oldest son to solemnize his engagement. I know you will treasure it the more for its associations—as I do."

"It is lovely, Jack; nothing else could have delighted me more." Esther's blissfully happy face confirmed her words and the hour that followed was one long remembered afterward when the ring ceased to shine on Esther's finger.

When Jack had taken his departure, Esther stole up to her room and lay down to dream. Esther dreamed that she wore the topaz ring and one after another the former owners had torn it from her finger and led her a weary chase to recover it. In the morning she arose pale and unrefreshed.

Mrs. Appleton sat with impatient eyes on the clock awaiting Esther's appearance at the breakfast table. Ever since the girl had come to live with her aunt and guardian, she had tried not to break the cast iron rules and regulations that governed the household. Now she appeared with guilty haste.

"You are ten minutes late, Esther," chided Mrs. Appleton as they sat at table.

"I am sorry, aunt Augusta—I did not sleep well until morning and did not hear the rising bell."

Instead of administering the rebuke that was on her lips, the older woman's eyes widened with astonishment and a smile of grim humor played about her mouth.

"That is your engagement ring, I suppose, Esther," she said when the servant left them alone.

Esther flushed and held out her hand. "Yes, isn't it dear of Jack to give me an heirloom, aunt Augusta? This ring was worn by his great-grandmother and all the women of the family since then. I don't believe there is another like it in the world!"

Mrs. Appleton bent above the ring an instant and then resumed her breakfast. "I hope there isn't," she said dryly.

"Why, aunt Augusta! Esther's tone was hurt and she flushed deeply. "What do you mean?"

"I mean it's a cheap, tawdry, penny-prize package sort of a thing to give a girl—nothing at all like the heirloom instance of the Winton stings—worth millions and one would never know it by any outward sign!"

"That is what I like about Jack," said Esther sturdily. "He did not give me the ring because he was mean, but because of the associations—love is not always measured by the amount of money one spends. I am proud to wear this ring!"

"I am glad you are—I hope you will be as proud when you show it to your friends—I can fancy what Edith Fane will think," remarked Mrs. Appleton cuttingly as she arose and left the room.

Esther had little time to ponder over Mrs. Appleton's slighting remarks—perhaps she was only too well accustomed to the stinging darts to mind the pin pricks of this morning's conversation. Her day was filled with engagements—shopping, a luncheon, a reception and several teas. The luncheon was given by Anne Bellew to announce her engagement to a copper magnate.

To the dozen girls gathered about the charmingly arranged luncheon table, Esther's sweet secret was all unguessed. Interest centered in Anne Bellew and the beautiful betrothal gifts they had brought to her in anticipation of the announcement.

After luncheon they gathered in Anne's boudoir and admired the gifts. Suddenly mischievous Edith Fane caught Esther's left hand in her own and touched the topaz ring.

"Caught!" she cried gleefully; "girls—guess what has happened! Esther is wearing the Winton betrothal ring!" Esther's blushing face admitted the fact of her engagement and they crowded about her with congratulations. Anne Bellew, alone, stood pale and quiet. It ill suited her vanity to have Esther's engagement to the part of the season take the bloom from her own announcement.

"You have not seen the ring, Anne," cried Edith; "it's the dearest old thing imaginable—so charming to have an heirloom of that sort, you know."

Anne bit her lip—no one knew better than herself how she would have chosen to ally herself with the historic Winton family—as it was, the copper magnate.

"I have seen the ring quite recently," said Anne with a little scornful smile.

"Of course—old Mrs. Winton always wore it with her wedding ring; but she has been dead three years," retorted Edith.

Esther had turned aside and was examining a portrait in a silver frame with unseeing eyes and burning cheeks. She wished they would stop talking about the betrothal ring as if it were public property—it had seemed such a sacred thing to her last night.

"I have seen it worn as an engagement ring since Mrs. Winton's death," Anne's voice was cold and precise and far-reaching. "I have seen it within the year."

"Of course—you have seen it today, Anne; really, dear, your joke is ill timed," whispered Edith with a glance at Esther.

"I mean before today," said Anne, touching her pale gold hair with a jeweled hand. A shower of sparks flew from the cluster diamond that the copper magnate had chosen. The girl's eyes seemed to scatter little sparks of light at the same time.

Esther summoned all her courage and pride and came forward to make her adieu with a haughtiness that overmatched Anne's disdain. As she whirled homeward, she found herself crying bitterly without reason.

Once in her own room, she remembered with a bitter pang that there had been rumors of Jack's engagement to Anne Bellew 12 months before—she had never thought of these rumors since. Jack had been devoted to her and Anne had met her copper king.

She grew more angry as the situation dawned upon her—Anne Bellew had once worn the topaz ring and perhaps had scorned it and the giver; she, Esther Raymond, had taken it gladly and with it accepted the sweet sentiment woven about its history. Probably the girls were laughing about it now—she could fancy Anne's sarcastic remarks, witty and keen as a razor's edge.

In a little fury of jealous anger Esther tore the ring from her finger, placed it in a box and returned it to Jack Winton with a few scrawled lines that explained nothing whatever but the fact that she no longer loved him and hoped never to see him again.

Contrary to her half-defined hope, Jack did not come and ask for an explanation. He merely stayed away and Esther did not see him for several weeks. It was evident that he purposely avoided attending any affairs where he might meet her. The girls of her set noticed the absence of the topaz ring from her finger and wondered if Esther had been foolish enough to mind Anne Bellew's sharp tongue—was it not common talk that Anne had fished assiduously for the Winton millions and—failed to get even a nibble?

They all knew this save Esther herself—she was eating out her heart with grief, but there was no outward evidence of her suffering save a loss of her exquisite bloom and the sadness of her once happy eyes.

Mrs. Appleton was the last to note any change in her niece. She did not even comment on the absence of Jack Winton—the young man had many interests in western cities and made frequent journeys from home.

"What has become of Jack Winton, Esther?" she asked sharply one night when they were dining alone. Desert had been placed on the table and the servants had withdrawn.

Esther winced as she replied: "I have broken my engagement," she confessed.

"Why?" demanded Mrs. Appleton. "Because," returned Esther, stubbornly. "I cannot say any more, aunt Augusta."

"Fiddlesticks! Broken your engagement to the catch of the season for some silly reason—I wash my hands of you, Esther—you may die an old maid! You are a little idiot!"

"I know I am, auntie," half sobbed Esther, rising from the table, and then with a broken little cry she ran from the room and straight to her own apartment. Before midnight she wrote a long letter to Jack Winton.

"I have been such an idiot, dear," she wrote earnestly. "I am not worthy of your love—for I listened to idle gossip and doubted you—can you forgive me? If I ever wear the topaz ring again I hope I may grow to be like the noble women of your house who have worn it in the past—but I shall not be happy until you place it once more on my hand!"

Esther's maid posted the letter before her mistress retired to sleep soundly until the morning brought renewed doubts as to whether she should have broken her silence and written to Jack—perhaps he had ceased to love her!

The door opened to admit Mrs. Appleton, looking strangely perturbed. "I saw Edith Fane last night, Esther, and she told me what took place at Anne Bellew's luncheon—Anne is a little cat! It is true she did see the topaz ring worn as an engagement ring within the year—in fact I was the one who wore it!" She leaned heavily on the footboard of the bed.

"You?" ejaculated Esther, amazed. "Certainly! Jack's father, General Winton, asked me to marry him and I consented and wore the topaz ring for one day—and it happened I lunched at Mrs. Bellew's—hence Anne's knowledge. I tired of the general in a week—he was a dreadful bore in spite of his millions and so I broke the engagement. The old man died two months afterward, as you know. That's all!"

"All!" echoed Esther, ruefully; "if I had only known, aunt Augusta!"

Mrs. Appleton turned to leave the room. "Don't be so credulous, Esther, in the future! Don't let strangers assuage your friends without protest—have more faith in those you love. I would not be the bitter old woman I am now if I had been more loyal, more faithful. If you ever wear the topaz ring thank your stars you had an opportunity to try again!" She bent forward swiftly and kissed the astonished girl. An instant later she had left the room.

"Poor aunt Augusta," sighed Esther. The door opened once more and Mrs. Appleton put a smiling face into the room. "Jack Winton on the telephone, asking for you, Esther," was all she said, but it was quite enough for Esther.

POULTRY HANDLED PROPERLY

Some Simple Precautions That It is Always Well to Observe in the Kitchen.

The skin of poultry is frequently very dirty when brought from market, and fowls should be not only washed, but scrubbed with a soft brush and warm water in which a teaspoonful of baking soda has been dissolved. Such treatment will prevent the disagreeable "hen" taste often noticeable in cooked poultry.

Poultry should be drawn immediately, and unless it is known to have been killed very recently it should be thoroughly washed on the inside and used soon. Poultry that is drawn directly after killing, on the contrary, keeps better if it is not washed until placed or put in the ice box with a piece of charcoal inside the body.

Cold-storage chickens should undergo circumstances remain in a warm room before cooking. Such poultry must be kept at a low temperature and cooked as soon as possible. All cold storage food when brought into a warm temperature spoils quickly, and without doubt many cases of illness traced to the use of such food are really due to careless handling and delay in cooking.

Baked North Pole.

Bake a sponge cake in an oblong pan, and when it is cool split it into two sheets with a sharp knife. Have a square of cylinder-shaped sheet of ice cream, around which the sheets of cake are wrapped. The cake should project for an inch or so. Cover the cake with a thick meringue and pack the ends of the brick with it. Then put in a hot oven for a minute, or until the meringue is just tinged with golden brown. Brown on a board covered with white paper, and when browned slip on to a platter and serve.
